(Select the best answer according to the reading.) PLEASE USE ESV

1. According to the reading, which Christian is right?
   A. The one who eats meat
   B. The one who does not eat meat
   C. Both are right

2. According to the reading, which Christian is right?
   A. The one who observes the Sabbath (Saturday)
   B. The one who observes the Lord's Day (Sunday)
   C. The one who esteems every day the same
   D. A, B, and C

3. According to the reading, which one is unclean?
   A. Beef
   B. Ham
   C. Both
   D. Neither

4. Pastors should insist that everyone eat meat since verse 20 clearly says that "Everything is indeed clean . . ."
   A. True
   B. False

5. According to the reading, a mature Christian who invites his Jewish friend (a new convert) to his home for dinner should not serve barbecued pork ribs as the main course.
   A. True
   B. False

PLEASE USE ESV

6. One person believes he may eat _____, while the weak person eats only _____. Let not the one who _____ despise the one who _____, and let not the one who abstains _____ _____ on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him.

7. One person _____ one day as better than another, while another _____ all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his _____ _____. The one who _____ the day, observes it in _____ _____ _____ _____. The one who _____, eats in _____ _____ _____ _____, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who _____, _____ in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.

8. Why do you _____ _____ on your brother? Or you, why do you _____ your brother? For we will all stand before the _____ _____ of God; for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, _____ _____ _____ _____ to me, and _____ _____ shall confess to God."

9. So then each of us will give an _____ _____ _____ to God.

10. For if your _____ is _____ by what you eat, you are no longer _____ _____ _____. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died.

OPTIONAL… Let's also discuss your SOAP devotional of a scripture in the reading that stuck out to you.